

Auxiliary Soldier

The soldiers who lived at Segedunum Roman Fort were auxiliary soldiers.

'Auxilia' means help. The auxiliary soldiers assisted the legionary soldiers by providing extra manpower and, in particular, specialised fighting techniques.

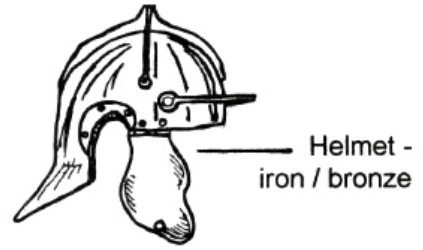

They were made up of the infantry (foot soldiers) and cavalry (horse) units.

Why not have a go at creating your very own infantry auxiliary soldier?

All you need to do is:

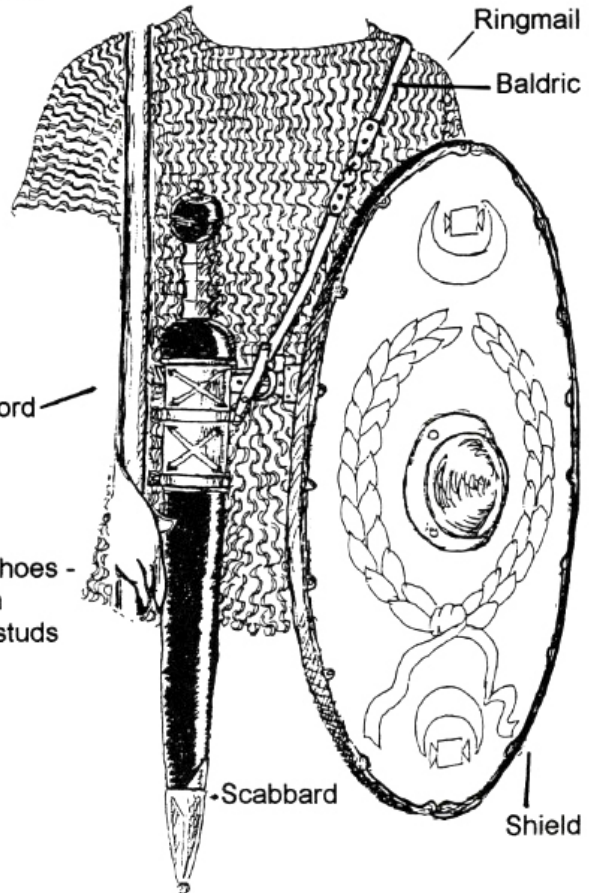

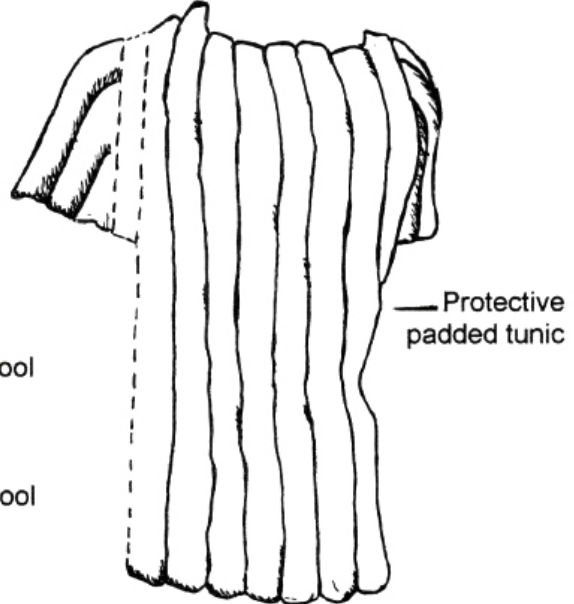

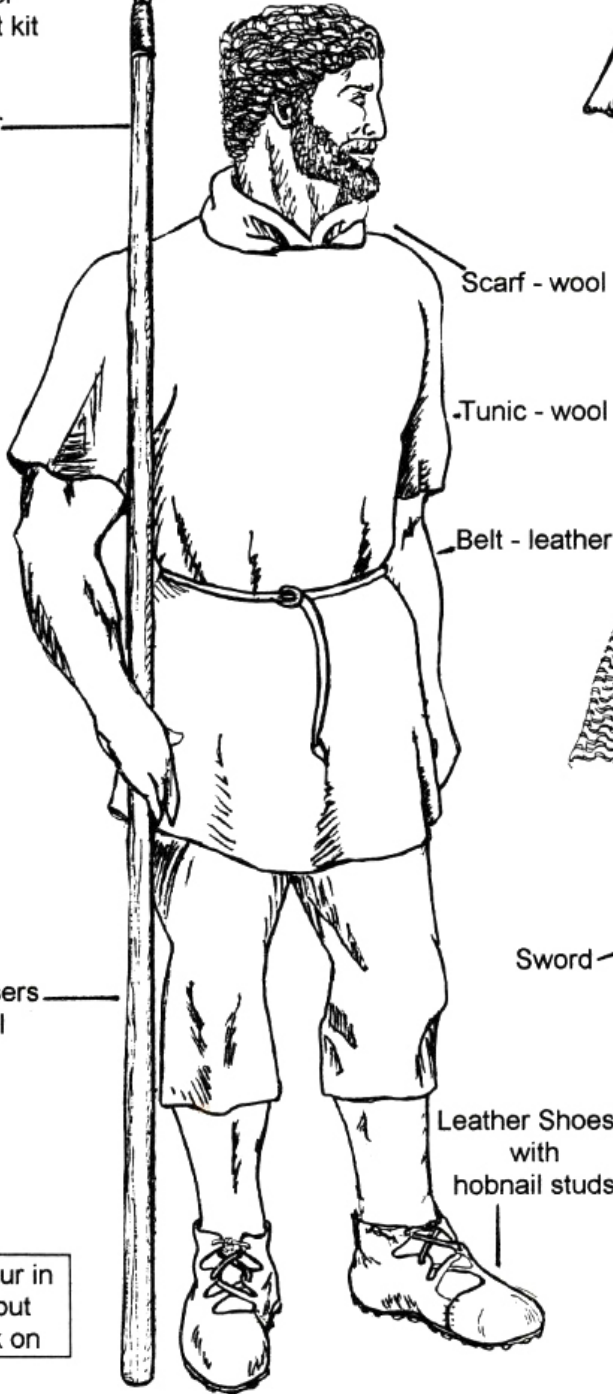

1. Print or stick the soldier onto A4 card
2. Carefully colour your soldier in
3. Cut him and his uniform out
4. Stick on all his uniform
